NO. 111

In Brief, and to the Point.
Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

A Fighting Parson in Texas.

Texas still has some pioneer preachers. The San Angelo Standard reports briefly a sermon delivered last Sunday at that place by Andrew Jackson Porter, the fighting parson. Among other things, he said:

"I have preached out here on the frontier the past sixteen years, and I have lived and supported a large family. I must say, though, I got most of my support from the cowboys. Years ago, when the town of Uvalde now stands, I have skipped from thicker to thicker in my endeavors to escape from the leaden bullets that were flying around in search of a little old log school house where I could preach to a few women and children. Now, look at Uvalde to-day, with its fine churches whose spires point heavenward."

"I went to Fort Clark to preach years ago, and started in without a church member, and at the end of twelve months I was without a member. I thought that was the hardest place I had ever struck. One day, just after the boys had been paid off I was walking up the street and noticed a lot of soldiers and gamblers collected in front of a saloon. As I was passing one of them holiered: 'Hullo, parson!' I went across and they asked me to preach, saying that this was the biggest crowd I'd ever had an opportunity to talk to in Brackett. I said: 'Gentlemen, preaching is my business, but I always make it a rule before beginning to take up a collection. Fifty cents is the regular donation.' Taking off my hat, I started around. All that I presented the hat to threw in fifty cents until I came to a young gambler. He looked at the hat, shook his head, saying, 'Parson, I'd like to chip in, but I'm busted.' I got more money in that place than any I have been in."

"Holding services at a place one time I took up a collection for the support of missions. There was a poor old lady present who I noticed dropped a $5 gold piece in the hat. I knew she was very poor and not able to afford much, and thought that she had intended to throw in a quarter, but made a mistake. So next day I met her husband and said to him: 'Look here your wife put a $5 gold piece in the hat yesterday. I think she must have made a mistake.' No, no," he replied, "my wife didn't make no mistake. She don't fling often, but let me tell you when she flings she flings."

Teacup Fortune Telling.

I have a friend who is quite renowned for her success as a fortune teller through her skill in shaking and tapping a teacup until the grounds or tea leaves in the bottom of the teacup assume in a rude way certain shapes or forms representing people, animals and various other images which she professes to understand. She is a native of some way to the person whose fortune she happens to be telling at the time. I was present once when she told the fortune of a young lady. The prophecy and the method of making it seemed to me to be very vague; but the gist of it all was that a short time a young gentleman of extremely prepossessing appearance would arrive, and that he was, in some unexplained way, to exert a powerful influence on the future prospects of the young lady. I was wishing to know what was the cup, and I discovered what was the cup, and I obtained possession of it without being observed. In the bottom of the cup I saw that the leaves had assumed a form which, with a little aid of the imagination, might be accepted as resembling a very spare, delicate and altogether debilitated young man. With the aid of a teaspoon, and using a few other grounds or leaves that were lying on the bottom of the cup, I quickly changed the young man into a respectable-looking old tramp, with a big bundle on his back, and accompanied by a ferocious looking bulldog. Then I awaited the result. Presently the young lady whose fortune had been told took up the cup, with a blush of pleasure, and its contents. The moment she saw the dreadful figure of the old tramp she exclaimed, "What a horrid old fright!" Then there was a great commotion, which was only quelled when I acknowledged my guilt. But I had learned something, which was that with a little management and a teaspoon pictures of any kind could be made in a tea cup.

A blue-eyed girl went into the music-store and said: "Have you any easy Boston-Providence pieces for beginners?" "What are Boston-Providence pieces?" asked the astounded clerk. "Pieces without any runs in them," explained the blue-eyed girl, sweetly. The clerk glanced, and then handed down a piece in nine sharps, the score of which included two basses, and was full of short stops. He said he thought the would catch, as it was pitched pretty low.

It was the second week of their honeymoon. She floated over to the piano, raised the cover, and softly swept her fingers over the keys. Gently, but firmly, he withdrew the lily hand from the ivories, and shutting down the cover, said: "Darling, let this holy time be one of unalloyed happiness."

The Latest and Greatest Discovery Dr. J. E. Foster's Hamburg Fig-A-Crystalized fruit cathartic, a discovery of the greatest interest to the medical profession, a boon to every household. A most delicious laxative or purgative prepared from fruits and vegetables. So perfectly harmless that it may be administered with entire safety to an infant. So efficacious to adults that a single dose will prove their value. It is a preparation that it needs only to be presented to the public to become a necessity in every household throughout the land. For liver complaint, habitual constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and piles they are a specific. To travelers by sea and land they will be found invaluable; they are pleasant to take, and children will eat the figs as eagerly as candy. For sale by every druggist throughout the world. Price, 50 cents a box. J. E. Foster & Co., proprietors, 9 and 11 Front street, San Francisco, Cal.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thou ands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bosc's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed us, you may depend upon this for certain.

A Perilous Postponement.

To postpone, when the duty for immediate action is clear, is always unwise. Especially is it so when increasing ill health calls for a resort to medication. Often of the diseases of the later years, of which growth—always of fatal tendency, if not combated at the outset. We have all—even those of us who are remarkably well instructed—heard something of the danger attending Bright's disease, diabetes, and other diseases of the kidneys or bladder. Let no one be foolishly enough to procrastinate if he perceives the renal organs to be inactive. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are peculiarly adapted to overcome this inclination, to sufficiently stimulate, without exciting the kidneys and bladder. Infinitely less this diuretic to be preferred to the impure and fiery stimulants of commerce, which prove the bane of urinary persons with a tendency to renal trouble. They are likewise incompensable for dyspepsia, debility, fever and ague and biliousness.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Buckner's Arnica Salve, and my sore is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at 75 cents a bottle, and Buckner's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold at settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds, with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by Dr. S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1897

The various labor organizations throughout the country have limited the number of apprentices to the different trades. They have gone to the extent of fixing the number any one particular shop, foundry or other institution might employ. This regulation was fixed, unchanged as the laws of the Medes and Persians. No bill of excommunication against the boys could be more potent, for from this regulation there was no appeal. What has been the result? Tens of thousands of boys have been growing up without a trade and becoming hoodlums in consequence. Of the half million, or less, of people who annually cross the Atlantic, thousands are skilled artisans who take the positions which should be filled by boys trained in American workshops. So general is the feeling that the rights and privileges of our boys have been too much restricted that numerous industrial schools to supply the want have been started, as in Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago, Denver and many other places. The laborers whose sons suffer most by this state of affairs are experiencing a change of heart, and a new policy has been inaugurated. The national assembly of journeymen house painters recently held in the East unanimously resolved that this old restriction as to the number of apprentices employed in any one institution, or by any one boss, be abandoned. The taking off of this embargo, so to speak, from American raised boys seeking to learn a trade must be approved by all who have given the subject any thought; and the example set will, we think, be followed by many similar organizations throughout the country.

Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls has merits not equaled in some respects by any school in Nevada. The Bishop has been very painstaking in his selection of teachers. In making his selection there has been none of the cry of the "demagogue" which denounces the "imported," and demands home talent, whether or not it be talent or a conspicuous want of it. When in need of a teacher he has made the best choice from among the teachers he knew, living anywhere, no matter where, that his judgment would approve. As a consequence the school has a corps of excellent teachers.

As a home and training school, for especially country reared, girls it is excellent. In this school are trained a class of girls that would not elsewhere receive an education. A good work is being done there for the girls of Nevada. The merits of this school should command the attention of Nevada parents and receive from them a liberal patronage.

The Legislature of two years ago passed a law that in all of the public schools of this State there must be taught physiology and hygiene. The teaching of this science becomes very embarrassing to the teacher when constantly in receipt of messages orally or on paper similar to those sent by the old lady which read, "I don't want you to teach my gal any more about her insides."

Mr. Edward Atkinson continues in the last Century his demonstration that profits and prices are constantly falling and that wages are constantly rising. How perverse it is in the face of these facts for poor people to die in the tenement houses of the great cities because they cannot get decent places to live.

Steps should be taken by citizen of Nevada to get either a National or State appropriation of at least $10,000, to be devoted to learning by practical test what forage grasses, fruit trees, vines, vegetables, etc., can be successfully grown in the State with little or no irrigation.

The remark of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette that "Blaine, if a candidate, would sweep our State," is a strong argument. Ohio needs a sweeping, and the promise on behalf of Blaine is irresistible, unless some other candidate will agree to mop it up.

If the European powers must fight, there is a widespread American opinion that they need not waste such an immense amount of time in talking big about it.

The United States Attorney General has rendered a very important decision with regard to the the knowledge that no bonds of the $50 denomination had been issued.

W. C. Dick, of Toronto, got Charles Dobson, a reporter here, to negotiate the sale of the bonds, and A. P.

Wright & Co. found a buyer in New York for 48 cents. When the bonds reached New York the fraud was discovered.

The Terrible Northwest Drouth.

CHICAGO, August 10.

The telegraph wires crossing the vast area of country that has been parched and blackening for the want of rain brought only news of despair this morning. Messages received from all of the different sections show that the outlook is even worse than yesterday. There was a report of slight sprinkling, and faint hopes were entertained of a few drops in places. Today's telegrams contain the information that not a particle of rain descended in all the immense stretch of territory.

Baby Humors

And all Skin and Scalp Diseases

Speedily Cured by CUTICURA.

OUR LITTLE SON WILL BE FOUR years of age on the 25th inst. in May, 1888, he was stricken with a very fatal breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in patches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc.

Finally, we called on some physicians, and until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse, we were compelled about the 20th of July, when we began to give him CUTICURA RESOLVENT inter-ally, and the CUTICURA and CUTICURA

SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the RESOLVENT about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a little less than one box of CUTICURA, and only one cake of CUTICURA SOAP.

for it very much, and would like to have it told to the public.

An Attractive Window.

There were very few ladies on their way to the postoffice that do not stop to gaze at the tastefully decorated window of Mr. F. Levy and Brother. It is exceedingly attractive and contains representations of the newest and richest dress patterns, bodices, lovely curtains, parasols, and all the latest novelties in ladies' wear. It must be seen to be appreciated.

DR. THOMAS E. CHATARD.

United States Geological Survey—Carbonate of Soda.

Dr. Thomas E. Chatard, chemist of the United States geological survey, was in Reno yesterday, the guest of Mr. D. A. Bender and brother. His mission on the coast, particularly in Nevada, is to learn whether or not the Nevada alkali which, after leaching possesses considerable carbonate of soda, can be utilized. The soda is used largely in the manufacture of soap, printing paper, etc. "Four thousand tons are shipped annually to the Pacific Coast and that cuts a very small figure," he said, "in comparison with the vast amount consumed all over the United States. The most of this soda comes from England, and if it can be demonstrated that sufficient quantities through the leaching process can be secured at Mono and Great Lakes as well as at Ragtown, (where the Inyo Development Company is now producing soda ash) there will be a fine field for private enterprise. "The cost of soda ash," said he, "is infinitesimal in comparison to the cost of transportation."

He will visit these three places shortly and believes that Ragtown is the best base of operations. Of course he travels exclusively in the interests of the Government to gather such information which, disseminated is valuable to the commercial interests of the whole country.

A Plucky Girl.

The Carson Appeal is authority for the story that last week a Washoe rancher hired a Gold Hill girl to do housework. "He said he had a wife and two children and ran a big ranch near Reno. The girl went with him on the night train, and was taken in a carriage several miles from Reno. On her arrival her suspicions were aroused by seeing no wife and children; only the head man and some hired men. On being shown her room she inquired for the rancher's wife, and he replied with a grin: "I guess you'll do for the present."

She realized her situation, and saying nothing closed the door and barricaded it with her bedstead. In the night the man made an attempt to get in, and cursed her horribly on finding the door closed. She finally told him that she was armed and would shoot him dead if the door was broken in. He then went away, and in the morning she made her escape in time to take the train to the Comstock. Her friends propose to take the matter in hand and interview the scoundrel."

The Pyramid Reservation School.

Mr. Richard Cowles, of Wadsworth, contractor for furnishing floor to the Indian Agency at Pyramid Lake, is in town on his way to Sacramento. He says the new school building at the Agency will be two-stories high, hard finish, and it is expected that it will cost $10,000. Agent Gibson has made friends with the Department in Washington for making so much of a success of his school, hence the granting of his application for a new building. At one time last year there were 75 Indian children attending the Reservation school, and Mr. Gibson estimates that there will be as many as 100 pupils in attendance this year.

Trouble Between Italians.

A case in Justice Young's court to-day between two Italians, brothers-in-law, attracted a large crowd of sons of Sunny Italy. G.

Cioetti, an employee on the Marysville ranch, six miles south of town, was charged by A. Mussi, employed on Semeza's ranch, with assault, in that he, the defendant, did on Sunday evening last unlawfully draw a shot gun on him (Mussi) and threatened to shoot him. The case is being tried by jury and testimony was still being heard at half-past 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The jury, after being out about ten minutes, returned with a verdict of not guilty.

State Fair Proposals Wanted.

Nevada State Agricultural Society, lowing privileges at the coming right to reject any and all bids.

Mrs. Johnson's Funeral.

Mrs. Johnson, who died suddenly in the church last Sunday, was buried to-day from the Methodist Episcopal church, Reverend Dr.

DeLaMater officiating, assisted by Reverend William Fisher. The sermon by Dr. DeLaMater was from the text: "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh." The attendance was large and the ceremonies very impressive.

District Court.

The matter of the Calahan contempt was called in the District Court this morning, and as it became necessary to settle some preliminary question in advance of the main issue the matter was continued until to-morrow morning.

The arguments in the North

Truckee water suit will be heard to-morrow morning.

Changes.

Several changes have taken place recently in the Central Pacific time to Reolutes is that of No. 10 freight Dealy will leave to-morrow for San Francisco, where they will permanently reside, and where Mr.

Dealy will go into business. The his new home on the Nevada camping out there in a canvas tent and has to "wrestle for grub," yet says it beats the newspaper business "all hollow."

Dr. Bentley, wife and family, of him in the management of the office, has arrived on the Comstock sition.

rived in town from Carson last evening, and left on the overland train for California. Mrs. Stevenson will remain in San Francisco for ten days while the Governor visits his ranch near San Diego.

They will return to Nevada on or about the 20th inst.

Principal Robert Lewers, of the Dayton public schools, came in from the east last evening and went to his home in Franktown this morning. He was one of the Reno excursion party; he attended the National Educational Association at Chicago; afterwards visited Boston and other places in New England. Says he had a delightful visit among the wonders of the great east, and in every respect is pleased with his trip.

W. H. Daily, the Life-Saver.

Hon. W. H. Daily, the renowned swimmer and life-saver, passed through this morning on his way to St. Louis, Mo. He spent the Summer at Santa Cruz, where he said business had generally improved and the population largely increased, but that in his line, on account of the coldness of the water, only about one-third of the
